ESPAÑOL A TOPE

Intensive course of hispanic culture and civilization for foreigners (UdL, 16-29 July 2018)

Presentation

The University of Lleida offers foreign non-Spanish-speaking students an intensive course in Hispanic culture and civilization whose objectives are:

- Introduce participants to the history, culture and art of Spain and Latin America in the Western context.
- Improve and strengthen communicative competences in Spanish language, and especially listening comprehension and oral expression skills.
- Make possible the first-hand knowledge of the current situation and the social reality of our country (and, by extension, of the Hispanic and western world in general) in the framework of an intensive experience that combines different activities of didactic and playful nature.
